

1876, ch. 28. P. L. L. (1888), Art. 4, sec. 625.

642. Whenever any person shall be arrested upon any criminal charge, or for the violation of any law of this State, or of any ordinance of the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, it shall be the duty of the police officer or constable making such arrest, or in whose custody the said person so arrested may be, to take the person so arrested before the Justice of the Peace sitting at a station-house who may have issued the writ or warrant for such arrest, or before whom such writ or warrant of arrest is made returnable; but if such arrest is made without writ or warrant, or if such writ or warrant is made returnable before another Justice than a Justice of the Peace sitting at a station-house, it shall be the duty of the said police officer or constable to take the person so arrested to the nearest station-house; and the Justice of the Peace sitting at said station-house shall take jurisdiction in said case.

Police Justice has no jurisdiction to try violations of the motor vehicle Act.

Ruggles v. State, 120 Md. 556.

1876, ch. 28. P. L. L. (1888), Art. 4, sec. 626. 1929, ch. 269.

643. Every Justice of the Peace appointed under the provisions of this subdivision of this Article, shall file with the Clerk of the Court of Common Pleas, quarterly reports as of the first day of April, July, October and January, in each and every year, an account verified by his oath or affirmation, of all fines, forfeitures and penalties imposed by him under the laws of this State, during the three preceding months; which said account shall show the names of the respective defendants, the Acts of Assembly under which said fines, forfeitures and penalties were respectively imposed, and the amounts paid in each case by the said respective defendants; and the said Justice of the Peace, at the time of filing said account shall pay over to the said clerk the amount of said fines, penalties and forfeitures so received, or the portion thereof to which the State of Maryland is entitled, to be accounted for by said clerk as other moneys of the State are accounted for by him; said reports to be made within twenty days from the expiration of each quarter.

1876, ch. 28. P. L. L. (1888), Art. 4, sec. 627.

644. Every Justice of the Peace appointed under the provisions of this subdivision of this Article shall file with the City Register, on the first day of April, July, October and January in each and every year, an account verified by his oath or affirmation, of all fines, forfeitures and penalties imposed by him under the ordinances of the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore during the three preceding months; which said accounts shall show the names of the respective defendants, the ordinances under which said fines, penalties or forfeitures were, respectively, imposed, and the amounts paid in each case by said respective defendants; and the said Justice of the Peace at the time of filing said account shall pay over to the said Register the amount of said fines, penalties and forfeitures so received, or the portion thereof to which the Mayor and
